

FOREIGN LANGUAGE & AREA STUDIES FELLOWSHIPS

2019 SUMMER AWARD CONTRACT

---

REVIEW OF PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

(Please initial by each requirement)

- _____  Summer FLAS fellowships may only be used for intensive language study (not exploratory field research).
- _____  Summer sessions MUST be at least six weeks in duration.
- _____  Summer sessions MUST offer at least 140 contact hours for students at the beginning and intermediate levels, or at least 120 contact hours for students at the advanced level.
- _____  Field trips and excursions DO NOT fulfill contact hour requirements.
- _____  FLAS fellows may meet the required number of weeks and contact hours by attending one program, attending more than one program, or supplementing hours with private tutoring, as long as the required total number of weeks and contact hours is obtained.
- _____  A FLAS fellow's intention to utilize the FLAS fellowship abroad or to meet the contact hour requirement through private tutoring must be approved in advance by the Program Officer at USED; the FLAS coordinator will submit the approval request.

REVIEW OF REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

(Please initial by each requirement)

- _____  FLAS fellows are expected to engage in all activities related to the FLAS program, including periodic program evaluation.
- _____  FLAS fellows are required to complete an online report at the end of the FLAS award period through IRIS, the online federal reporting system.
- _____  FLAS fellows MUST include letter grades and number of credits in their IRIS reports. Please contact the area center contact if you have questions about grade or credit equivalents for your program.
- _____  FLAS fellows are required to take a center-issued survey once every two years to determine FLAS alumni's utilization of their foreign language and area studies training.
