UChicago Hillel Presents “Aims of Jewish Education”
2:00 PM | Newberger Hillel Center, 5715 S. Woodlawn Ave.
Just as life on campus has changed in the past decade, so has Jewish life. This lecture with Rabbi Anna Levin Rosen will explore how an active, engaged Jewish community can enrich students and the greater university. Kosher refreshments will be served following the program.

Mummies Night at the Oriental Institute
4:00 - 7:00 PM | Oriental Institute, 1155 E. 58th St.
Mummify our simulated mummy, take a mummy tour, or hear a mummy-tale. Craft a mummy to take home, compete in a Mummy Wrap Race, and catch a family photo at the Great Pyramids and with life-sized camel standees at our Photo Op. Play the game many a mummy has taken to his own tomb — Senet. And as always, in the galleries, King Tut’s monumental 17-foot-tall statue and our 40-ton Assyrian winged bull will lend a photogenic background for witches, vampires, monsters, princesses, or whatever your costume.

Doc Films presents Our Time
7:00 PM | Ida Noyes Hall, Max Palevsky Cinema, 1212 E. 59th St.
Reygadas’ visually ravishing dramas, possessed of a Tarkovskian stateliness, defy the commercial imperative that forces so many Mexican directors into Hollywood confectionery. With this tale of a married couple navigating an experiment with polyamory, Reygadas doesn’t just invite an autobiographical reading—by casting himself and his real wife in the main roles, he practically demands one. Admission is $7.

University Symphony Orchestra presents The Halloween Concert
7:00 & 9:00 PM | Mandel Hall, Reynolds Club, 1131 E. 57th St.
The University Symphony marks Halloween 2018 with an assortment of musical monsters – some frightening, some friendly – from legends, fairy tales, and classic films. Antonin Dvorák’s The Water Goblin, Anatoly Liadov’s Baba Yaga, and Igor Stravinsky’s Infernal Dance of King Kaschei are paired with excerpts from Franz Waxman’s The Bride of Frankenstein and James Newton Howard’s King Kong for a fun-filled program featuring costumes, story-telling, and special effects. Choreography and dancing by the Hyde Park School of Dance. Admission is free. Donations suggested: $10 general; $5 students/children.

Rockefeller Chapel presents “The Cat and the Canary”
7:30 PM | Rockefeller Chapel, 5850 S. Woodlawn Avenue
Come watch this silent film with live organ. Admission is $1 for students and $10 for general admission.

OI Film Screening: The Mummy, 1959
7:30-9:30 PM | Oriental Institute Museum, 1155 E. 58th Street
Fear the mummy’s curse! Celebrate the OI’s Mummies Night and Halloween with a screening of the Hammer Film classic, The Mummy, starring Christopher Lee and Peter Cushing. This screening in Breasted Hall will feature animated Mummy shorts! Free for OI Members and UChicago Students. $7 suggested ticketed donation for nonmembers.

The Revival Fall Comedy Revue

Sundays at Rockefeller
11:00 AM | Rockefeller Chapel, 5850 S. Woodlawn Ave.
On Sundays throughout the year, the soaring architecture of Rockefeller Chapel is home to cathedral-like sounds of choir and organ, with music ranging from the 12th to the 21st centuries. We glimpse the sacred through the most glorious of music and liturgy, and through thoughtful preaching by members of the University community. The communion table is open to all, always. On the 27th, the music of Aaron Copland and Hark I hear the Harps Eternal can be heard.

Luggage Check Closes
2:00 PM | Ida Noyes Hall, Max Palevsky Cinema, 1212 E. 59th St.
Luggage check will close at 2:00 PM as the Cinema has other events scheduled for the afternoon. Please make sure that you have collected all of your belongings prior to this time. If you would like to spend additional time on campus, we encourage you to work with your student to store your luggage for the remainder of the afternoon.
