The Organization of Black Students and the African and Caribbean Student Association are proud to present:

The Third Annual Black Convocation

Date: Saturday, October 2
Time: 11:30am-1:00pm CT
Location: Rockefeller Memorial Chapel + Livestream
Dress Code: All White

The mission of the Black Convocation is to expose the richness and breadth of the Black community on the UChicago campus to incoming undergraduate, graduate, and transfer students. We aim to highlight, celebrate, and establish the culture and expectations of our community at the onset of each academic year. This year, we plan on hosting not only the annual ceremony, but a reception where we will have food and other activities.

Students, faculty, alumni, and parents are invited to attend.

Masking Requirements
Please note that all individuals are required to wear masks at all times in University buildings. For more information, please visit the GoForward website.

This convening is open to all invitees regardless of vaccination status and, because of ongoing health risks, particularly to the unvaccinated, participants are expected to adopt the risk mitigation measures (masking and social distancing, etc.) appropriate to their vaccination status as advised by public health officials or to their individual vulnerabilities as advised by a medical professional. Public convening may not be safe for all and carries a risk for contracting COVID-19, particularly for those unvaccinated. Participants will not know the vaccination status of others and should follow appropriate risk mitigation measures.
