Choose one of the following four cluster options:

___ Literature and Critical Theory

___ Form/Genre/Medium

___ Literature in History

___ Literature and Cultures

What specific topic will you focus on within this cluster (e.g., Poetry and Poetics)?:

Please attach a separate sheet with your one-to-two page statement that describes your individualized cluster program, including the historical, thematic, and/or theoretical issues you hope to explore. Think of the statement as a way to complete the following phrase: "I am a scholar of _____."

You must select a minimum of five related courses as part of your cluster, two of which may be from outside the Department. Please provide a list (course number and title) of five cluster courses. It is suggested that students list three courses they have previously taken and two proposed future courses, though this is not a strict requirement. One of the two proposed courses may be a course not currently offered by the University and of the student's own design (a single-author course, for example). For courses taken previously, please note the quarter in which they were completed.
